Trip Overview

The Bhaktapur Durbar Square tour is a UNESCO cultural world heritage site located in the Bhaktapur city of Kathmandu Valley. It is a day tour; most travelers travel within a day's drive to Bhaktapur and return to the hotel in Kathmandu. However, it is also a combined tour of Nagarkot.

March to May and September to December are the best tourist seasons of the year for the Bhaktapur Durbar Square tour. If you are considering traveling in 2024 or 2025, you must look at the Bhaktapur tour.

The Bhaktapur Durbar Square tour costs and is a reasonable price. It means “city of devotees” and one of the three royal cities of the Kathmandu valley. It is considered the cultural gem of Nepal, famous for its elegant art, culture, and colorful festivals.

Bhaktapur Durbar Square is one of the country’s most charming architectural showpieces, highlighting Nepal’s ancient skills. The square has monuments, most of which are terra cotta with carved wood columns, palaces, temples with elaborate carvings, gilded roofs, and open courtyards.

The tour is on the way to the Nagarkot View Tower. Contact us for more information about the tour, cost, Itinerary, guide, and car to rent by email and WhatsApp at +977 9851033819 now.

Bhaktapur Durbar Square Tour has innumerable temples and architectural showpieces. The palace of 55 windows built in the 17th century was a masterpiece of wood carving the story. The Temple of Batsala Devi is full of intricate carvings.

There is a Bronze bell called the Barking Bell. The Golden Gate, the entrance to the palace’s central courtyard with 55 windows, is the world’s most beautiful and richly molded specimen.

The Lion Gate (a massive gate dating back to 1696 AD). The National Art Gallery contains ancient and medieval paintings depicting various periods and descriptions of Tantrism.

Nyatapola, the five-story Pagoda temple built in 1702 A.D., was the tallest temple in the county. It is famous for its massive structure and subtle artistry. The Bhairav Nath Temple is dedicated to Lord Bhairav, the god of terror.

It is built close to Nyatapola and is famous for its artistic grandeur. Pashupati Temple - a replica of Pashupatinath is widely noted for the erotic carvings in it is us. Dattatreya’s temple was built in 1427 A.D.

It has been claimed to have been built from the trunk of a single tree. Pottery Square preserves the world’s oldest pottery profession.

The Bhaktapur Durbar Square tour is fantastic. The golden effigies of kings perched on the top of stone monoliths, the guardian deities looking out from their sanctuaries, the wood carvings in every place-struts, lintels, uprights, tympanums, gateways, and windows.
