Trip Overview

3 day Chitwan Jungle Safari Tour is the best season you are willing to have. March, April, May, August, September, October, and November are the best times to explore the Jungle with activities.

If you are considering traveling to the Chitwan National Park Jungle Safari in 2024 and 2025, follow the excellent season and drop an email for the suitable itinerary, Permits, price, and cost details.

Nepal is home to many extinct animals and birds. The land Terai of Nepal is covered with dense tropical forests, a well-balanced mixture of the grassland of Savannah, and a riverine forest. Of the total land, 32,999 km is surrounded by ten national parks, six conservation areas, three wildlife reserves, and a hunting reserve.

Here, the safari is also adventurous. Contact us by email and WhatsApp for the Chitwan Jungle safari tour cost, information, national park permits, guide, and itinerary. Here are our numbers: +977 9851033819 or email us.

Chitwan National Park is among the most famous safari tours among many national parks. Chitwan Jungle Safari tour is the first national park listed on the UNESCO World Heritage site.

It is located in the Inner Terai lowlands of south-central Nepal, covering an area of 932km. As it is the best place to see wildlife, it is one of Asia's most popular tourist destinations.

On the Chitwan Jungle Safari tour, we start our time by riding at the back of an elephant or in a jeep. Chitwan Jungle Safari tour park is famous for protecting many endangered animal species and bird species. The place is an ideal spot for sightseeing.

From the Chitwan Jungle Safari tour, we know more than 43 species of mammals, 450 species of birds, and more than 45 amphibians and reptiles.

While tripping, we will see a one-horned rhino, Bengal tiger, gharial crocodile, numerous species of deer, langur monkeys, wild boar, and exhilarating wilderness into the thick Jungle.

Birds like the Bengal Florian, Giant Hornbill, lesser Florian, black stork, and white stork, and over 400 permanent or temporary species can be viewed. Canoe rides along the Rapti River on the western side also mesmerize the view.

There is no particular time for the Chitwan Jungle Safari Tour, but September may be the best month. It begins when we take a flight or Tourist bus from Kathmandu to Chitwan. We always learn something new every day.

Types of Hotels in Chitwan Jungle Safari Tour

There are several types of hotels, but Boundless Adventure provides a beautiful hotel that fits your interests and budget. Yes, some like standard accommodations and some medium and luxury.

It would help if you let us know what types of accommodation you would like, and we can continue with it for the Chitwan Jungle Safari Tour.

Tour Cost of Chitwan Jungle Safari

The cost for the Chitwan Jungle Safari Tour varies depending on various factors, including the tour duration, the type of accommodation, the meals and activities you prefer, and most importantly, your group size.

Two nights and three days are enough for the tour to Chitwan National Park. But if you have much time and desire to stay on the tour longer, the cost can go high accordingly. We offer fine accommodations and meals during your Chitwan National Park tour. However, the price is higher if you prefer a more luxurious service.

Our tour package involves some must-do activities in the Chitwan National Park. However, if you prefer additional activities we provide, the cost varies and becomes higher. Furthermore, the group size varies your overall cost for the Chitwan National Park tour. Although we offer tour packages to even solo travelers, providing discounts to such travelers is tough. Hence, the more you're in a group, the more you can expect a discount on the package.

Trip Itinerary

Boundless Adventure has made the itinerary for Chitwan Jungle Safari, which includes two nights and three days in Chitwan. The itinerary we created involves a complete board package. We have made the itinerary with a full tour of the Jungle and around the areas of the Jungle. Although your activities will be inside the National Park, your accommodation point is outside the Jungle.

Chitwan National Park is Nepal's first national park in the southern Central Terai region. The national park is also famous for its name, Royal National Park, home to over 700 species of wildlife and more than 525 species of birds. This exceptional national park is reachable through various parts of Nepal. One can visit Chitwan National Park through Kathmandu, Pokhara, or even Lumbini. However, we designed the itinerary by going through Kathmandu.

Travelers have different transportation options to get to Chitwan National Park. Travelers can choose a Bus, Car, or jeep if they want to go through ground transportation. If travelers wish for a quick option, an airway is also available. For airway, trekkers can choose either an airplane or a helicopter.

Many travelers go for a tour of the Chitwan Jungle Safari after finishing their Everest Base Camp trek. Also, trekkers who finish Annapurna Base camp trekking desire the Chitwan Jungle Safari tour.

You'll have a full day of sightseeing at Kathmandu Valley on your second day. After finishing your morning meal, you'll prepare for the day's visit, as we'll pick you up from your hotel. Your sightseeing begins with exploring Kathmandu Durbar Square, then to Swayambhunath and Boudhanath visit, and concludes the day with a visit to Pashupatinath temple.

Kathmandu Durbar Square sightseeing

Kathmandu Durbar Square is a famous tourist site on New Road Kathmandu. Known as "the Museum of Temples," the site is a World UNESCO heritage site in Nepal. On the visit to Kathmandu Durbar, you can explore palaces, temples, and courtyards, which the people of ancient times made with unique architecture. The highlight of the Kathmandu Durbar Square visit is Kumari Ghar, where the living goddess Kumari resides. You can also get inside the Kumari Ghar; however, Photography is not allowed. Furthermore, you will visit several temples and shrines in the area and local markets.

Swayambhunath sightseeing

Swayambhunath, also called Monkey Temple, is your next visit destination after Kathmandu Durbar Square. The temple lies at the hilltop, where visitors can view the entire Kathmandu valley. The dome-shaped stupa with Buddha's eyes and a golden spire is the main attraction of visiting the Swayambhunath. During the visit, devotees will perform prayers, spin prayer wheels, and round the stupa clockwise. You can also get involved in these activities.

Boudhanatha Stupa sightseeing

Boudhanath is another prominent area for Buddhists and a top tourist destination in Kathmandu. During your visit to the Boudhanath stupa, you can circumambulate the Stupa clockwise by turning the prayer wheels. Visitors can click plenty of photos of such a peaceful site. In the surroundings of the Stupa, you can see monasteries, temples, and shrines where monks and devotees engage in religious activities. You can explore these areas and gain insights into Buddhist practices and philosophy. Furthermore, you'll enjoy your lunch at the rooftop restaurant while enjoying the view of the Stupa.

Pashupatinath Temple Sightseeing

Your Kathmandu sightseeing day concludes with a visit to the holiest Hindu temple, Pashupatinath. The area of Pashupatinath temple is extensive, with each part consisting of the temple with stunning architecture. Apart from the main temple, foreigners can visit Pashupatinath temple's other premises. As you get to Pashupatinath in the evening, you can enjoy the aarti (ritual of worship with fire) that priests do at the Bagmati riverside every evening.

After the beautiful sightseeing day, we'll drop you off at your hotel.

Essential Information

Activities in the Chitwan National Park Tour

On a Chitwan National Park tour, you can enjoy numerous activities that provide unique national and surrounding experiences. Here are some activities we have included in our package for our client during their tour in Chitwan National Park:

Jungle Safari

Chitwan National Park Jungle Safari is a thrilling and enhancing experience in the dense forest with various species of flora and fauna. Travelers can experience the safari in Chitwan National Park by getting on the back of an elephant or through a jeep drive.

Jungle Safari in Chitwan National Park by riding on an elephant's back is a popular and traditional way of touring around the park. The elephant safari provides a close-up view of the national park's wildlife without disturbing the animals. As the elephant mahouts (elephant handlers) guide the elephants, you needn't worry about your safety. Furthermore, elephant safaris are slower-paced, allowing more chances to encounter the park's wildlife and ecosystems.

Another option for travelers to go on a jungle safari is through Jeep Drive. This option provides a faster tour of the National park in a short time. Jeep Safari in Chitwan National Park is suitable for those seeking a thrilling and informative safari experience while enjoying the comfort of a vehicle.

Whether you choose Elephant Safari or Jeep Drive, you'll see the wide variety of Chitwan National Park's flora and fauna, allowing you to appreciate the area's beauty.

Elephant breeding center

The elephant breeding center in Chitwan National Park is where local authorities keep elephants for their conservation. During your tour, you'll visit the center and have the opportunity to learn about elephants, their behavior, habitat, and conservation efforts to protect them.

At the Elephant Breeding Center, you can see elephants close by, including adults and baby elephants. Moreover, you can feed them and take photos from a safe distance.

Canoeing in Chitwan

During the tour to Chitwan National Park, Canoeing is a part of the activities you'll get involved in. Canoeing will be at Rapti River. The activity allows spotting unique wildlife and birds along the riverbank. You'll see two crocodile species: the Ghariyal and the Marsh Muggler. Furthermore, you'll be delighted to see birds, including cormorants, open-billed storks, pond herons, and egrets.

Travelers will be pleased to see a scenic view of Chitwan National Park's lush greenery with a soothing sound of water, creating a peaceful ambiance. Furthermore, it provides excellent opportunities for photography, allowing travelers to capture the beauty of the river, national park, and its inhabitants from a unique perspective.

Tharu village and cultural exploration

In the Chitwan National Park, you'll visit the national park areas and the nearby Tharu villages. While visiting the Tharu communities, you'll get acquainted with the culture and lifestyle of the Tharu people.

One can see the mud houses of the Tharu village with unique architecture while exploring villages. Travelers can taste traditional Tharu cuisine, which people make from locally grown ingredients. Furthermore, the Tharu communities are famous for their unique culture and traditional dance, which you can also engage in.

Bird watching

The Chitwan National Park is heaven for those who love watching birds. The national park is home to over 525 species of birds. On birdwatching time, travelers can see a wide variety of birds, including the billed Stork, Common Hoopoe, Cattle Egret, Black-winged kite, Paddy field Pipit, Asian Pied Starling, and Common Greenshank. Moreover, birds like Spotted Bush Warblers, Cotton Pygmy Goose, Yellow-bellied Prinia, Grey Backed Shrike, Red Naped Ibis, Throated Kingfisher Grey Wagtail are commonly visible in the Chitwan National Park.

You'll go bird watching early in the morning. In the morning, birds do their activities, including feeding, nesting, and other behaviors. Hence, morning is the best time to spot various bird species. The diverse ecosystem of Chitwan National Park, with grasslands, forests, and rivers, provides ideal habitats for birds to stay in. The Birdwatching location is within the park, which offers scenic views and a peaceful environment for observation.

Best Climate and weather for Chitwan Jungle Safari

One can take the Chitwan Jungle Safari tour throughout the year. As the tour does not involve any challenging part, travelers can undertake the tour all year. However, the climate and weather are crucial in determining the enjoyment of a jungle safari in Chitwan National Park. Understanding the seasonal variations is necessary. Also, choosing the best climate and weather for Jungle Safari in Chitwan varies depending on travelers' preferences.

Spring time

Spring from March to May is ideal for Chitwan Jungle Safari, which has a perfect climate and weather. In the Spring, the temperatures are mild, vegetation starts to grow, and the season brings pleasant weather conditions. Also, the season is perfect for birdwatching and seeing migratory birds.

Summer time

Summer from June to August brings hot and humid temperatures with occasional rainfall. The season has the best climate and weather with dense greenery and provides excellent fauna sightseeing.

Note: We don't suggest you go for the Chitwan Jungle Safari tour in June and July as the months bring heavy rainfall. And the leeches are all over the land of the national park.

Autumn time

Autumn from September to November provides the best climate and weather for Chitwan Jungle Safari. The weather and days are clear during Autumn, and visibility of flora and fauna is excellent between September and November.

Winter Time

From December to February, winter brings cool weather and climate conditions. Jungle Safari during the winter in Chitwan is best as the Chitwan don't face harsh cold conditions. The dry jungle will be ideal for jungle walks and exploring the park on foot.

Considering the above factors, travelers can choose their ideal Chitwan Jungle Safari tour time.

Accommodation during the Chitwan Jungle Safari tour package

We arrange accommodation in our package as per your preference and considering the level of service, you desire. In Kathmandu, we can arrange hotels ranging from nonstar to 5 stars. As you requested, we will book your accommodation at the finest hotel.
