Dhulikhel tour has been an important trading center for centuries on an ancient route between Nepal and Tibet. It is still an ideal station to stop overnight at during the tours. One can also enjoy the immense beauty of nature.

Dhulikhel offers one of the finest panoramic views of more than 20 Himalayan peaks stretching from Mt. Dhaulagiri in the far west to Mt. Everest in the east. Sunrise and sunset views over the mountains are simply breathtaking. Dhulikhel tour has become famous from the old town to the southern end, where you can observe the Newari culture.

Old Newari houses with beautifully carved windows, doors, and ancient pagoda-style temples are fine examples of traditional Newari craftsmanship. The medieval city has been inhabited for at least five centuries. Another centuries-old Newari settlement gives you a feel of the cultural theme park.

Numerous temples, such as Narayan Temple, Harisiddhi Temple, Bhagwati Temple, Gaukhureswor Mahadev Temple, Palanchok Bhagwati, and Buddhist monasteries, are part of religious and cultural heritages that depict the traditional and old Newari craftsmanship of Dhulikhel.

The Dhulikhel tour begins after you have spent the day sightseeing around Kathmandu Valley. A one-and-a-half-hour drive takes you to the destination. Dhulikhel is an ideal hill station because of its natural beauty, ancient heritage, and rich traditional culture.
